

National Bureau of Economic Research
Minneapolis, Minnesota Sick Leave Policy

Employees of the National Bureau of Economic Research (“NBER”) based in Minneapolis, Minnesota will accrue one hour of paid sick leave for every thirty (30) hours worked beginning at the commencement of employment (or July 1, 2017, whichever is later), up to a maximum of forty eight (48) hours of paid sick leave per calendar year. To be eligible, an employee must work in Minneapolis a least eighty (80) hours per year. A newly-hired employee must complete a ninety (90)-day period of employment before he or she may use paid sick leave.

Paid sick leave that is earned under this policy may be used in the event of (a) the employee’s illness, injury, or need for preventive medical care, (b) an eligible family member’s illness, injury, or need for preventive medical care, (c) the closure of NBER or the school or child care provider of the employee’s child due to a public health emergency, inclement weather, loss of power, loss of heating, loss of water, or other unexpected closure, or (d) the employee’s need to address the psychological, physical or legal effects of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. For the purposes of this policy, eligible family members include an employee’s child (regardless of age or dependency, including adopted, foster, step or legal ward, a child of a person who has assumed the responsibility of parenthood), spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling (including half-siblings, step-siblings and siblings related through adoption), grandchild or grandparent, or the child or parent of an employee’s spouse or domestic partner.

Employees are requested to give as much advance notice as possible of any leave granted under this policy. Employees may be required to provide documentation from a licensed health care provider for any leave that exceeds three (3) consecutive work days.

An employee is entitled to carry over any accrued, unused paid sick leave to the following calendar year, but in no event will an employee be permitted to accrue more than eighty (80) hours of paid sick leave. Employees will not be paid for accrued, unused paid sick leave upon termination of employment.
